Hunter from Strawberry and Kurt Hiser of Pinecrest agreed that Robert Boggeri's fish was the largest ever landed in Tuolumne County. Launch your boat at one of the public boat launch ramps or rent a boat from various boat rental agencies at the lake. The lake is loaded with numerous fish species and attracts fishing enthusiasts in search of bass, hybrid stripers, sauger, crappie, catfish, sunfish and white bass. In October 1964 Robert Boggeri of Hughson landed a record 17-pound, 2.5 ounce German brown trout in Donnell Reservoir. For a time in 2010-11 a landslide closed the windy dirt road to the lake, but it is now open again. Whether you have a boat or are working the shoreline you are sure to have good luck. The lake is planted frequently with rainbow trout. Some people manage to maneuver small, hand-launched craft down to the water. The stretch of river is only a mile long, but you could make a whole day of fishing it as you pick your way up and down the banks, trying your luck along the riffles and in the quiet pools. Visitors can explore over 315 miles of shoreline for boating, fishing and sightseeing. Details Fishing Times Fishing Reports Map Bait Shops HookandBullet.com, a Busy Pixel brand.
