Students are continually striving to maximize their capabilities and stretch their limits. We believe in being a high moral character and always demonstrating and finding the best in each of us. A We hope that all members of the family Riverbend continue to show kindness and consideraA$A f A © what good citizenship. Teach Like the ChampionI read a book titled A e Teach Like the ChampionA e by Doug Lemov. Mr. Lemov served as a teacher, instructor, consultant and administrator during his career and observed many teachers, good and maches, over the years. Mr. Lemov was intrigued by what exactly separated the good teachers from the Great Masters and decided to write a book about what the excellent teacher tools use to separate from the good teachers.Riverbend school if he prides treated teachers . We know the importance of having great teachers in our school. When a teaching position is being filled, the screening process and interviewing is very intense. We absolutely comb comb through the application materials. We look hard on transcriptions to ensure that the applicant took challenging courses and received good grades in these courses. It will also dig the educational philosophy of each candidate. We know that A © takes a certain kind of teacher to be successful in Riverbend and we will work hard to find those who agree with the Riverbend Way.A e And of course, we want teachers who sA f o able to connect with Children. But only what does a great teacher do? What kinds of things were identified by Mr. Lemov in his book, Teach Like Champion? Listed below are some of the main chapters that the address that is necessary to be a great teacher. I am proud to say that for the most part our teachers are an onehing point in the following areas: 1. Define high academic expectations to teachers know that by the riverbend we want to raise the highest achievable level. There is no space for a fluffmic in our curriculum. The contest is demanding and rich for our high students. 2. Planning that Achievement guarantees academic is the beauty of collaborative planning time is that our level of teaching and content teachers are capable of planning effectively how to cover information at a given year. Our teachers know the importance of developing curricular maps, unit organizers and lesson plans. Our teachers are well planned and well prepared. 3. Structure and deliver your classes by there are many creative and effective ways to deliver the Content. The teachers of the Riverbend School are encouraged to use a of all in delivering the Content. The number one is a certainty that students get the relevant information, but also encourage teachers to do so in a way that is exciting and engaging. 4. 4. Students in their lessons - It is important to take excited students with the topic. Often, this means providing an a e e a e e a e - Students also like to know the relevance of the Content. Riverbend's incredible teachers do a masterful job to put the students involved in the lesson. 5. Creating a strong classroom culture - Riverbend School worked hard to establish this "thus, the term" Riverbend Way, "We often receive visitors who marvel with the behavior of our students in classrooms and corridors. Our teachers do a magnificent job of establishing a positive and healthy culture in their classrooms. Routines, Trades, Celebration Aches and procedures are firmly in place. 6. Configuration and maintenance of high behavioral expectations - Another area of Anfase in our school. Our students know that they should lead in a way that promotes The learning environment. The dress code is something that helps in this area also. The students are expected to be respectful and responsible. Our teachers never get tired of doing what is right and never If you get tired of holding your students to this same pattern. 7. Character and Confidence Building - We want our students to know that the character matters. Teachers take so many opportunities as possible to teach caret through their own. asshole and through examples in their affairs. We know that we want our students to be well educated, but we also want them to become well-rounded and grounded members, it also worked from our society. 8. Challenging students to think critically - the desired goal of a child who progresses through a school education of the riverbend is that he is able to think critically. The student must first acquire a deep and broad base of knowledge and then make connections with the patterns within each discipline. The student will begin to model what was learned. In the last analysis, the student will be able to take all these information and begin to think critically and solve problems. It is not great to see that many of the items identified by Doug Lemov to become a great teacher are already happening in the Riverbend Junior High School? There are still many ways we can improve and do better, but it was refreshing to read this book and know that our teachers are already doing most of these things. I know I'm biased, but I believe we have a team of A a e "" - "Champion A e a e" teachers at the Riverbend School. Our teachers really buy in the concept of a e "" - "The Riverbend Jay. They always do the best and give all the students to the students of the Riverbend School.mr. D.
